Congress Called To Assemble April 2

President Will Lay German Situation Before Congress and Declaration That a State of War Exists Is Expected.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—President Wilson, recognizing that Germany practically is making war on the United States on the seas, has called Congress to assemble in extraordinary session on April 2 to deal with the situation.

The purpose of the session—now called two weeks earlier than the date first set—as announced in the President's position, is to receive a communication from the Chief Executive on "grave questions of national policy."

The President, in his address to Congress, will detail how Germany practically has been making war on the United States by the ruthless destruction of American lives and ships on the high seas, in contravention of all the laws of nations and humanity.

Congress then is expected to pass a resolution declaring that a state of war has existed between the United States and Germany for some time.

Such a resolution in itself will not be a declaration of war in a technical sense, although practically it will amount to the same thing.

As a consequence the United States will take further steps to protect its interests on the high seas and elsewhere against the war-like acts of Germany, and whether an actual state of war will come to exist in its full sense will depend on the future acts of the Imperial German Government.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—In the event of hostilities with Germany there will be a sudden round-up of German spies and agents in this country of surprising magnitude, according to an official of the Department of Justice, who frankly stated the department is endeavoring to conceal every scrap of specific information it possesses touching on any phase of neutrality.

The Bureau of Investigation of the Secret Service corps has been carrying on a very quiet but extensive inquiry for several months.

LEXINGTON, KY., March 22.—As evidence of the patriotism that is sweeping the country since the break with Germany, practically every member of the student body of Transylvania College rose to his feet and there-by signified his willingness to enlist when President R. H. Crossfield announced that a military company would be organized at the institution next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Twenty-eight young women students also volunteered for service and these have already been organized into a Red Cross corps.

LONDON, March 22.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent reports that it is rumored that serious riots have broken out in Berlin in connection with the scarcity of food. A dispatch from Oldenzaal Holland, says, "persistent rumors are current of great rioting in Berlin." The dispatch adds: "Frontier regiments are reported to have left for Berlin to maintain order."

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Preparation for aggressive action by the navy against the German submarine menace has begun at the direction of President Wilson.

The President authorized the expenditure of the $115,000,000 emergency fund, provided by Congress to speed up naval construction and pay for special additional war craft, and the suspension of the eight-hour law in plants engaged on navy work.

Secretary Daniels ordered the New York navy yard to begin building sixty submarine chasers of the 110-foot type to be completed in from sixty to eighty days.

With the President's approval, the Secretary also ordered the graduation of the first and second classes at the Academy.

The first class will go out March 29, releasing 172 junior officers to fill existing vacancies, and the second in September, furnishing 202 more, a full year before they otherwise would be available.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., March 22.—Bishop Charles E. Woodcock, of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky, was greeted with outbursts of enthusiasm at the noonday Lenten service at the Garrick Theatre in Philadelphia when, in the course of a stirring patriotic and religious message, he said, "There is no law that compels us to be cowards. Peace at any price—God forbid!"

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Officials of the leading telephone and telegraph companies conferred here with War Department officials and Director Gifford, of the Council of National Defense, to perfect plans to insure the Government rapid and efficient wire communications in event of war.

A SUCCESSFUL AND PRETTY OPENING DISPLAY

The promises of the Simon Department Store were certainly made good on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday when their Spring display of Millinery, women's suits, gowns, waists and lingerie and all kinds of beautiful wearing apparel for women were shown. The largest gathering of shoppers ever congregated in a like establishment in Paris pronounced the showing to be the most elaborate ever seen here. When President R. H. Crossfield announced that a military company would be organized at the institution next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, twenty-eight young women students also volunteered for service and these have already been organized into a Red Cross corps.

Fearing Suit For False Arrest, Two Suspects Released

Two Mysterious - Acting Germans Arrested by Chief Link Released After Spending Night in Jail.

Acting upon the theory that two mysteriously-acting Germans who were found on the streets here Tuesday night were Capt. Chorl and Herman Schroder, machinist mate, reported to have been drowned while attempting to escape from the interned German raiders at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, Chief of Police Fred Link locked the men for the night, only to have them given their freedom Wednesday through fear that he was leaving him self open to suit for false arrest. The men have not been seen since around Paris, and the supposition is that they left the city the moment they were given their liberty.

Chief Link stated that his suspicion had been aroused when he saw that the men wore regulation United States Army shoes when he placed them under arrest. When he accosted them they pretended they were unable to speak English and he could not learn anything definite from them. He later called in an interpreter, but he, too, was unable to get the men to talk in any language he knew.

After having remained in jail over night one of the men condescended to tell Chief Link, in broken English Wednesday morning, that he and his companion were Poles, and that they had been working in a coal mine in Pennsylvania. They explained their presence in this part of the country by stating that they lost their jobs in the coal mines, and were on their way to Cincinnati. On searching the men before giving them their freedom Chief Link said that he found in the pockets of each ore letters bearing a foreign postmark and slips of paper bearing the names of Germans in various parts of the United States.

According to Chief Link the appearance of the men did not bear out the story that they were coal miners, and that their hands did not give the appearance of having done any hard labor recently, and that their features bore the stamp of a higher order of intelligence than that possessed by the average foreigner employed in a mine.

SMALL FARMS IN "WILDWOOD"

"Wildwood is the name of the suburban property that formerly was the New Fair Grounds. This property has been divided into small farms and will be offered in ten tracts at public auction on April 4th, at 2:30 o'clock by Wilder, Caywood & Gorey, the present owners. This is undoubtedly the most desirable property that has been put on the Paris market in a long while. If you ever intend owning a home you had better figure on buying one of these small tracts. Right in town and yet no city taxes to pay. Water works, gas, electric lights, and street car right at the door.

GAME AND FISH CLUB.

It is reported that a game and fish club, with a membership of about three hundred, will soon be organized in this county. Our informant stated that the State Game and Fish Commission would be asked to have Mr. Doug Thomas, Sr., of this city, appointed Game Warden for Bourbon county, who would co-operate with the members of the Club in the protection of fish and game in the county. The Club would also mix a little fun with the serious side of its business, and would occasionally take fishing excursions to points where the finny tribe are known to be waiting for the lures and the bait.

ASKED TO LOOK FOR MISSING BOY.

The mother of Clarence D. Mickelson, of Waterloo, Iowa, is seeking information as to the whereabouts of her son, seventeen years old, who left his home at that place some time ago, and has not since been heard of or seen. He is five feet, eleven inches in height, weighs about 140 pounds, has brown hair, and has a circular scar on his left wrist. Any information given to Chief of Police Fred Link, or any member of the Paris police force, will be promptly forwarded to Mrs. Mickelson.

Local sportsmen have been bringing good bags of wild ducks from the ponds in this vicinity. There seems to be a larger number of the fowl here this spring than usual.

REFERENDUM MEASURE PASSES THE HOUSE.

The bill propounding a referendum on measures passed by the Legislature where property is classified for taxation was passed by the House of Representatives, at Frankfort, Tuesday, without a dissenting vote. The bill was introduced by Representative Oliver.

It provides that whenever the General Assembly shall enact any law pursuant to or under Section 171 of the Constitution as amended, classifying property and providing a lower rate of taxation on personal property, tangible or intangible, than upon real estate, the provisions shall be subject to a referendum upon the written petition of five per cent of the legal voters of the State.

The amendment of Representative Bailey fixing a tax on property exempted from local taxation, of ten cents on the $100 for county, city and school purposes was the occasion for considerable debate. Representative Hutchcraft, of Paris, contended that the adoption of the amendment would make the tax rate so high on this class of property that it would defeat the very purpose of the bill, that of bringing out hidden wealth for taxation. The only way to get out intangible property for taxation, Mr. Hutchcraft contended, was by an efficient administration and a low rate of interest.

PARIS MAN CHARGED WITH KILLING HORSE.

Mr. F. B. White, of Paris, was arrested in Lexington, by Patrolman Wilcoxson, Tuesday afternoon, on a charge of reckless driving in an automobile, after he had run into a horse at the corner of Mill and Vine streets, belonging to an unknown negro man, and broke its leg, according to the arresting officers.

The horse had been sold a few minutes before by Mark Arnett, and the new owner was driving him from the stable when the horse was struck, on Mill street, by the automobile, it was charged. The animal was killed by Patrolman Eades.

Mr. White was going south on Mill street, and as he approached Vine street, and seeing a collision with the horse and buggy inevitable, turned east on Vine street, but too late, it was said, to keep the vehicle from hitting the horse. In Police Court his trial was set for Wednesday.

When the case was called, Mr. White, on motion, was dismissed.

War and International Law.

The deplorable situation resulting from the destruction of the Lusitania, Laconia, City of Memphis, Illinois and Vigilancia raises again the question whether there is any such thing as international law. The libraries and systems of teaching that have grown up under that title seem to-day to have vanished into thin air.

There are in any collection of human beings a great many who observe laws only from fear of force. Plenty of men would steal and kill did they not fear the penalty. But there is no penalty for breaking international law. An international police force may some day maintain by force the validity of such codes of rules as may be agreed upon, but it may be many years before any such force can be created.

A strong public sentiment is always enormously helpful in maintaining any kind of a code. In business life, law is not the only thing that keeps the banker or the merchant honest. They know that trickery will hurt and perhaps ruin their business. Consequently the great bulk of every day business transactions are square and on the level, not so much from fear of law, as from fear of public sentiment and loss of reputation.

In the matter of keeping national agreements, sentiment seems less well defined. Formerly no nation ever thought of keeping its pledges when they were contrary to its interest. During the past century there has been a decided advance in this particular. But Europe has always scoffed at such promises. When the United States promised to retire from Cuba, few of the foreign diplomats believed the pledge amounted to anything. But they did. Yet there are plenty of people in our country who would favor the breaking of any national pledge, if they felt it would temporarily help American interests.

Here then appears the task of each citizen in the present catastrophe. It is to do his share to create public sentiment in favor of the most rigid keeping of national agreements. Breaking of international law should be considered the same as taking money from a bank. Let it become a point of honor, to support no man for United States office unless he has a clean record on this world issue.

The Handling of Fruit.

One of notable changes in the fruit industry is the improved methods of packing and handling it. Many of us who were brought up as boys on or near farms have a vivid memory of the careless way in which the average farmer used to handle his fruit.

The old timer used to sling around such a fruit as apples, as if a Baldwin was a stick of wood. An apple looks as if it had a pretty firm texture. But a slight dent or abrasion starts decay which soon spreads throughout that specimen, and is communicated to others.

An apple sorter would sit down on a box and toss the fruit to piles several feet away. Apples would be poured from baskets into barrels, and those that were poured in first would be very considerably dented by the fall. After a barrel was filled, an honest packer would give it a thorough shaking down, so as to be sure his customer got good measure. This no doubt jammed the fruit still more and established the seeds of decay.

The well trained grower of to-day is learning that fruit is one of the most perishable products in the world. With a well padded bench for wrapping of individual specimens in the world. With a padded bench for sorting and the wrapping of individual specimens in tissue delicate fruits are successfully carried indefinite distances, and come out about as good as they hung on the tree. Growers of oranges, peaches, lemons, etc., long ago learned the watchful care that must be given the delicate tissues. But thousands and thousands of apple growers have not yet learned this end of their business.

These modern methods seem finicky to the old timer, but they bring big returns in money. Not merely does fruit look handsomer when received that way, but it has been so protected from wounds that it will last longer, bring a higher price, and be worth more money to the consumer. Producers that do not go the limit to keep their fruit from getting wounds and abrasions in transit can not expect to stand anywhere in the critical modern market.

MILITARY SERVICE.

There is a widespread demand for practical military training of our young men, and the sentiment is growing so strong that in the near future it may be necessary for each to serve a certain time in military training and preparedness in order to be ready for the unexpected, but always possible, eventualities.

Our high military authorities are very pronounced in their views, and are on record as saying that our militia and volunteer system is wholly inadequate, and that no matter how brave and courageous, patriotic and liberty-loving our young men of fighting age may be, without military training they would be helpless in conflict with trained and seasoned troops.

General Wood believes that six months would suffice to put our young men in shape for actual service, but such an experienced and thorough going soldier as General Scott believes that it will take at least a year.

Others are of the opinion that the Swiss system, which, like most other Swiss systems, is the best that can be devised, will suffice for this nation, and this means only a limited number of days' service each year for a limited number of years.

Compulsory military service would be a reflection upon the patriotism of our young men, and for the great majority of them would be unnecessary. In order that all may be treated alike, a compulsory service law might be expedient, so that the slackers and those who think more of pleasure and self-indulgence, and who are blessed with a liberal amount of this world's goods, may be compelled, if necessary, to go into training with the sons of the farmer and the mechanic, the butcher, the baker and the candle-modified militarism in this country. We have always held our own when it came to the pinch, both on land and on sea but it is obvious that to do so in the future we must not depend upon the flintlock and the prowess of our young men. We, too, must be trained and prepared. —Memphis News Scimitar.

PLENTY OF PROOF.

From People You Know—From Paris Citizens.

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced in the face of evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Paris, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

J. W. Larkin, retired farmer, 431 High St., Paris, says: "I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have at times had quite a bit of trouble with my back. Often, I have had a dreadful ache across my kidneys and the kidney secretions have been too frequent in passage. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills at these times have never failed to cure me of an attack."

THANKS TANLAC FOR CHANGE

"I used to swell up like a frog after eating," said James Wayson, wharfmaster at Greenup, Ky., "but that was before I started taking Tanlac. That bloated feeling took all the life out of me and made me tired and droopy. I didn't seem to have a bit of ambition. But it's different with me now. I sure feel fine."

"Before I took Tanlac I was eating practically nothing—just a little soup and milk now and then—my stomach wouldn't stand anything stronger. After eating—no matter what or how little—I belched and bloated. I was nervous and dizzy all the time."

"I dreamed for night to come. I couldn't sleep. I tossed about all night and woke up in the morning all tired out. I could barely stand on my feet during the day. I got discouraged. I didn't know what to do."

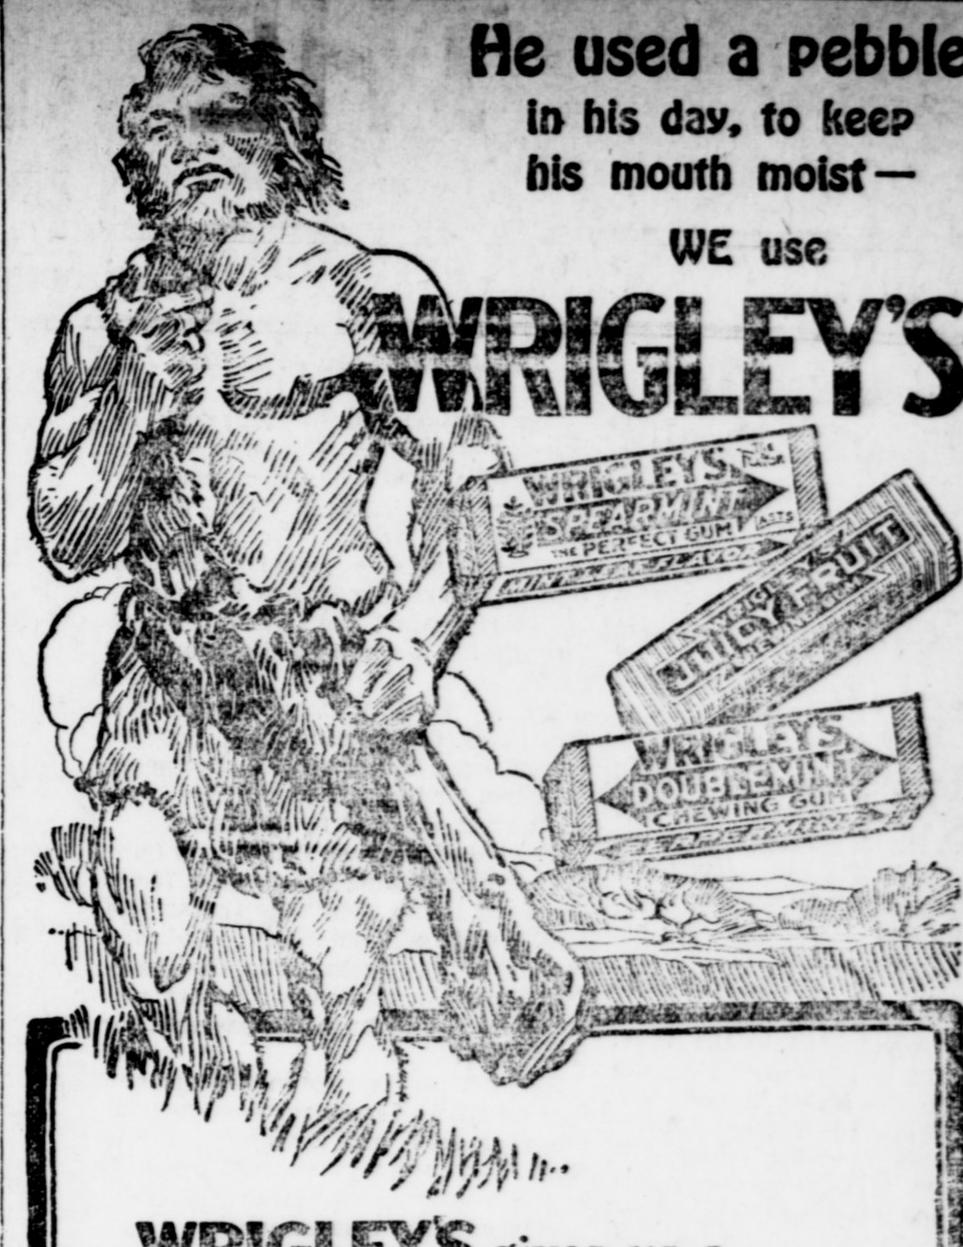

"A friend told me to try Tanlac. I hesitated at first, because I had tried many things and taken many tips from friends. But I got Tanlac on this friend's advice and I thank God that I did. It did the work."

"Today I am in fine health. I sleep fine and am not nervous a bit. I have a big appetite. So, you see, it's no wonder that I urge others who suffer as I did to get Tanlac right off."

If you are not feeling right get Tanlac today. Delay in health matters is dangerous.

A trinity of evils, closely allied, that afflict most people, and which follow one on the other, in the order named, until the last one is spread through the system, leading to many evils. But their course can be checked.

PERUNA CONQUERS

It is of great value when used promptly for a cold, usually checking it and overcoming it in a few days.

ample evidence has proved that it is even of more value in overcoming chronic catarrh, dispelling the inflammatory conditions, enabling the diseased membranes to perform their natural functions, and toning up the entire system.

The experience of thousands is a safe guide to what it may be expected to do for you.

EDITORIALS COMING INTO THEIR OWN.

Editorial utterances are being used and discussed more widely right now than ever before. Our people have become more addicted to the editorial habit in the last few years than in half a century before. Early journals were based on editorial utterances, neglecting the news side, but in the last quarter of a century, following newspaper changes that are largely the result of mechanical improvements, interest seemed to have fallen away. Editors of late have become mere parts in the factory.

Editorial columns probably have as many readers proportionately as do other newspaper departments, but with the seeming decline of interest many publishers dropped editorials as a regular feature and took to displaying opinions in large type on the front page from time to time.

But the great war brought a revival of interest in editorials, sobered many who had forgotten to read in the modern excitements of tango, movie and joy spines. The war has made most of us cosmopolites in a good many ways. We know geographical maps as never before and something of the life and habits of other people all around the globe. We are demanding trained and thoughtful comment upon world and national affairs.

MAYSVILLE BARACAS WIN.

The Baraca Class of the Maysville Baptist church slipped several points over the Paris class in the contest now going on by rounding up an attendance of 78 at their class session last Sunday. The Paris class had only 48 present. The Maysville class now has a good long distance lead over the Paris class, and are making preparations to maintain that lead, unless the Paris class should spring a surprise at the final moment. Both classes are working hard, but it seems Maysville has succeeded in arousing the most enthusiasm.

DEFACERS OF PREMISES NEED A SPANKING

There is nothing that adds more to the appearance of a town than well-kept premises, neat yards, clean gardens, beautiful lawns, and last, but not least, a tidy looking fence, unless the custom of removing fences altogether should become universal, and we honor all those who take a personal pride in such things.

But it is a lamentable fact that there are those who do not take pride in fixing up anything about them and are envious of others who do. They will go even out of their ways to annoy by little acts of pettiness that tend to mar the appearance of premises. In the course of news-hunting expeditions about Paris we have frequently noticed nice fences which thoughtless boys, or perhaps some children of larger growth have whitened and defaced until it has borne a strong resemblance to an Alaskan totem pole. And that isn't all. These kids have in many places chalked the fronts of business houses, defaced window sills, and in other ways shown their natural bent. One business man remarked, after finding his place: "I would just like to have four arms and hands instead of two and catch some of those little savages at their work!"

Nothing is more annoying to a man after he has placed a neat fence around his home and had it neatly painted to go out some morning and find that some thoughtless kid or some man, perhaps, had been making a car painter shop of it. Sometimes the vandalism is the work of a petty spiteful nature. Such things ought not to be. A judicious spanking, administered in the good old-fashioned way, where it would do the most good, might help some to break up the practice, even if it did lead to a declaration of war with the "dear child's" parents.

RANK FOOLISHNESS.

You occasionally see it stated that colds do not result from cold weather. This is rank foolishness. Were it true colds would be as prevalent in midsummer as in midwinter. The microbe that causes colds flourishes in damp, cold weather. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effectual and is highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable everywhere.

"SOMETHING HAS HAPPENED TO THE KAISER."

MONTREAL, March 22.—Mysterious hints are being discussed in certain circles here in regard to the possibility that the German Emperor may be in a serious physical condition. No open statement could be obtained from any person of authority regarding the specific nature of the injury or disease which led to the report, but rumors were current that "something has happened to the Kaiser," the nature of which is being kept a secret by the faithful servants and physicians with whom he has surrounded himself since the beginning of the war.

No news of the Kaiser's whereabouts or of his physical condition has been given out from any part of the German empire since on March 2 when a dispatch from Berlin through Amsterdam stated that he was suffering from so severe a chill that he had been forced to remain indoors altogether and transact all business with headquarters by means of messengers and telegraph.

The chasers are designed to do 35 knots an hour and will be equipped with triple propellers and a fuel capacity for long cruising radius.

You Can Make Excellent Cake with Fewer Eggs

Just use an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

CREAM LAYER CAKE

Old Way

1 cup sugar	1 cup sugar
½ cup milk	1 cup milk
2 cups flour	2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder	4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
3 eggs	1 egg
½ cup shortening	2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring	1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After stirring the flour and Royal Baking Powder together two or three times, add the milk and flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

"KEEP YOUR CHICKENS ON YOUR PREMISES."

If the frequent complaints that have been coming to the police of Paris regarding chickens running at large on the streets are acted upon, it may become necessary for them to issue such an order as above. Once upon a time the city of Millersburg was torn from center to circumference over the question of whether or not chickens should be allowed to run at large on the streets, meaning of course, feathered chickens, not the ones from the city or the female college.

We do not know if there is an ordinance prohibiting owners from allowing their poultry running on the streets or getting the range of their neighbors' yards, but it is a fact that the complaints have been frequent in regard to the destruction of property by chickens wandering from their own domains and poaching on neighboring territory. These complaints are apt to become more frequent with the advent of the spring gardening season. Chickens in a newly-planted garden can cause much damage, and in a short time play havoc with the results of a week's hard labor.

Keep 'em tied up, if no other way can be found, and thereby promote the peace and quiet of the community in which they have the misfortune to live.

MINSTRELS FAIL TO ARRIVE.

There was no performance of the Price-Bonelli Minstrels at the Paris Grand Opera House, Wednesday night, owing to the fact that the company failed to arrive.

Manager Fred Erd, of the Grand, received a message from the manager of the company, at Cincinnati, stating that, owing to the railroad strike, they had been unable to fill their dates, and consequently, could not make Paris. It is said that the company was organized at Cincinnati, and had been unable to get any further. The Ohio River being at flood stage, also, probably kept them from crossing.

JIM ALLEN, HE SAYS:

In the Cynthiana Democrat, Editor Jim Allen's "Pert and Pertinent" column has the following:

"A colored centenarian at Paris, Ky., says she attributes her long life to hard work and minding her own business. Tautology. Minding one's own business is hard work."

The Women's Clubs of Paris are starting an agitation for better streets in Bourbon's capital. If they want to see streets 'as is streets' let them not fail to visit Cynthiana."

SPRING ARRIVED OFFICIALLY ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21.

While the recent snow blizzards were raging and the snowdrifts were piling up, many Paris people wailed, "I don't believe Spring will ever come." For their consolation it may be remarked that Spring is here, officially, at least. Spring, according to all well-conceived theories, arrived at precisely 11:20 o'clock Tuesday night, preceded by a heavy shower, and accompanied by a display of lightning, with the thunder god putting on the loud pedal.

The departed winter was about the worst ever known in Paris, according to unanimous opinion. So, it's a rare consolation to know that Spring is here. Although the temperature did not fall lower than "somewhere in the 40's" the early birds longed for the ear muffs that have been laid away in moth balls, and the frogs which were startled out of their winter sleep by the thunder storms and electric display of Tuesday night paid their neighborly calls while wearing rubber boots and keeping a watchful eye on the fast-moving clouds.

The fine weather of yesterday brought out a large number of shoppers, who inspected the nice things on display in the store windows, and the new things for Easter came in for their fair share of attention from the fair sex.

NOW'S THE TIME.

Why not have the house wired for Electricity before the Spring House Cleaning? Electricity is cheaper, cleaner and in every respect better for lighting purposes than any other method. No dirt, smoky oil, no chimneys to buy, no mantels and shades to replace, no disagreeable heat in the summer months. It's so convenient, too, for many other little comforts, such as attaching the electric iron, the sewing machine, washing machine, electric fan. If you ever used electricity you will never be without it. Let us figure with you to-day on wiring the house. No better time than now.

(23-3t)BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

The entire time of the Court was taken Tuesday in the trial of two small suits. The first was a suit brought by Booth & Strother, for the recovery of $480 on a note alleged to have been lost. The jury returned a verdict for the defendants.

The second suit was that of Thos. C. Mynea against Hay & Anderson, on appeal from the Bourbon Quarterly Court. The suit was the outcome of a controversy involving the sale of a lot of hay. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

In the case of Ella Waters, who was sentenced Wednesday, is the first conviction of a woman, followed by sentence to the penitentiary, that has occurred in the Bourbon Circuit Court for a period covering twenty years of court history.

Four prisoners, convicted at this term of the Bourbon Circuit Court, were brought into open court Wednesday and sentenced to the Frankfort Reformatory for varying terms.

Ella Waters and George Cravens, both white, charged with stealing brass, etc., from the Paris Gas & Electric Co.

were sentenced to three years each. George Garrett, colored, alias "Snow," was given a life sentence under the habitual criminal act. Proof was presented showing that Garrett had been "sent up" once from Shelbyville, once from Lexington, and once from Ohio.

He had been out of the Frankfort Reformatory but ten days when the crime for which he was sentenced Wednesday was committed. Jasper Groves, a negro under 21 years of age, charged with forgery, was committed to the State Reform School near Lexington, for two years.

James Ross, colored, of Millersburg, was given one year in the Reformatory for forging a check on which he failed to obtain the money. O'Leary Lee, colored, of Millersburg, was fined $200 for setting up a game of chance, namely, running a "crap" game.

The time of the Court was taken up yesterday morning with trial of the case of Renaker & Garnett against Rufus Kenney and E. T. Mullin, involving an action for alleged breach of contract in the sale of a crop of tobacco.

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the sum of $140.

This was the only case on trial yesterday, and the Court adjourned until this morning, when the cases of T. J. Flora, etc., and J. H. Stivers, etc., against the Paris Water Company for damages, will be heard.

These are cases involving property loss sustained in the destructive fire of two years ago on South Main street, when the lumber yards and other property of the Stivers Lumber Co., and of Mr. Flora were burned.

Due, it was alleged, partly, to insufficient water pressure.

DRESS-UP WEEK MARCH 31 TO APRIL 7.

The Dress-Up Week campaign, which swept over the county last year, and which has become almost a National institution, will be the vogue again this year, the week of March 31—April 7, having been designated as "the week."

That the merchants of Paris will soon get together and plan a campaign along the lines suggested by the promoters of "Dress-Up-Week" is likely, but it will take a lot of prodding to get them in action. It's going on everywhere else, so why can't we get busy?

GRAY THE LEADING COLOR.

Styles seen on Fifth Avenue right now, in both dresses and straw hats, are in most instances gray in shade. We have some of the most beautiful hats in the popular grays. A Medicine for Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Relieved the Sufferings of Women.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Mrs. Kieso Cured After Seven Month's Illness.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my house work, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for herself how good it is."—MRS. KARL A. KIESO, 596 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

Could Hardly Get Her Bed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—MRS. JOSIE COPNER, 1668 Harrison Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GERARD SEES PROBLEM IN DEALING WITH ALIENS.

NEW YORK, March 22.—James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, in an address before the New York Chamber of Commerce, Monday, urged his hearers to go forth as missionaries of preparedness. He said he favored preparedness because he believed that universal military service, as practiced in Germany, was the best training and discipline for a nation. The United States, he said, was just now in "an unpleasant position and it is only when the military are given absolute control," he continued, "that there is any danger from militarism, and there is no need to fear militarism where equal opportunity is afforded. This opportunity can be found only in a civilian government and Germany is ruled entirely by a military government."

Mr. Gerard predicted that if war should come the United States would be faced with a great problem in dealing with "our alien enemy population."

"The question is," he said, "shall we intern them, as was done in Germany or shall we allow them to roam at large, destroying bridges or anything else they can?"

AROUSED OVER PLAN TO BAN TOBACCO IN ARMY

Tobacco dealers throughout the country are sending protests to Washington against alleged intention of Congress to prohibit the sale of tobacco at army posts. This belief originated in army circles and several protests against it have been sent to the official service organs, it being claimed that a rider in the Army Appropriation Bill which passed the House, but was lost in the Senate filibuster on the Armed Neutrality Bill.

It is the fear of the tobacco men that the restrictions might be carried in the bill when it passes at the extra session of Congress scheduled at this time to begin on April 16, but it was claimed at the Capitol that there is small cause for alarm, as the ban on tobacco is intended only when compulsory military training shall have been adopted, as under that bill as drawn by Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, tobacco and intoxicating liquors could not be sold at army posts and training camps. Senator Chamberlain has no hope of getting action on the Military Training Bill until the regular session, so that the alarm which has spread in the tobacco trade is without justification, it was pointed out at Washington.

The desire to bar tobacco from the camps where the youth of the country are to be trained has been severely criticised by many men in the service as they insist that this action will lead to further restrictions, and they point out that France and Great Britain have been purchasing tobacco in large quantities for their soldiers because of the contentment it brings to the men in the field. They insist also that a time that the United States should be endeavoring in every possible way to increase enlistments, legislation of this kind should not be contemplated.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circu-

(New York Tribune.) Charlie Chaplin's $750,000 salary is not mere fiction. The Wheeler Legislative Investigating Committee, which submitted its report recently, finds it a fact and thinks it may reach $1,000,000. The committee reported that while it was in session the rumor that Charlie was dissatisfied with his present salary started a rage of movie firm presidents to California to secure his services at almost any amount. Chairman Wheeler declared that the committee was informed that one firm did succeed, with a bid of $1,000,000 a year.

THE MOST EXPENSIVE RAILROAD IN THE WORLD

The most expensive railroad in the world, we are told in the American Magazine, is the Garfield & Bingham Railroad that carries ore to the gigantic copper mine of D. C. Jackling at Bingham, Utah. It cost $300,000 a mile, and is all tunnels and trestles. It was built for the sole purpose of insuring an adequate supply of ore for the mill.

THE NEW BARREL SILHOUETTE

Fashion Offers Straight Lines as Well as Barrel Effects This Spring.

SILKS STRONGLY IN EVIDENCE.

NEW YORK, March 19, 1917. There will be two fashionable silhouettes this spring. The slim silhouette, with its straight, clinging lines will continue to be first in favor, as it has been all through the winter, but the new barrel skirt will give women a chance to indulge in the bouffant effect, which will, doubtless, be welcomed by those who have complained of being tired of the eternal straight line.

True to its name, the new silhouette is in the outline of a barrel, bulging at the hips and drawn in at the waist and ankles. There are many ways of accomplishing this puffiness over the hips. One is by clever draping of the material at the waistline somewhat after the fashion of the "peg-top" skirts that were used some years ago. This type of the barrel skirt is shown in the sketch, which illustrates a dress of figured pongee with sleeves and belt of plain pongee in natural color. The skirt narrows down to two yards at the hem; for the narrow skirt, especially in this form, is to come in with the spring, fashion authorities say. This silhouette has also been named the "bowling-pin;" and looking at the whole silhouette from shoulder to ankles, and not merely from the waist downward, the name is indeed most appropriate.

A good many spring coats have taken on the lines of the new silhouette, showing that this effect is not restricted to dresses only. A very smart model is fashioned with a deep band at the lower part, the fulness of the upper part gradually losing itself when it reaches the band. Machine stitching furnishes the finish of this coat, which is shown in the second sketch. The material is soft, spring-weight velours, one of the favored spring fabrics.

Satin and a Variety of Silks for Spring.

Perhaps the most generally favored of all fabrics this spring will be satin. It is to be used for one-piece dresses, for suits, and for separate coats. This material will also be in demand for evening gowns and afternoon dresses, and for these its popularity will be shared by charmeuse, which is very closely related to satin. The suits and dresses of satin will be decorated with braiding and embroidery, and much of the embroidery will carry out the Oriental colorings which are distinctly in vogue this season.

There is a decided predominance of silks for spring. Among the silks for suits, poplin, rajah and tussur are strongly in evidence, and many novel ideas are noticed in the developments of these materials. On a suit of gold-colored silk jersey, black velvet was used for the collar and for a band at the lower edge of the coat. Some suits of rajah silk are trimmed with stenciling in attractive color combinations. The stitching is done on the fronts of the coats or only on the belts, just enough to furnish some contrast. This is one of the very newest trimming ideas.

In spite of the great vogue for colors in all the brightest hues and in all manner of combinations, a great deal of black and white is used. When cleverly handled, this combination is always attractive, and it is again very fashionable in Paris and New York. Solid black and white checked materials with rather large checks are considered smart for coats, both for the long separate coats and for shorter coats to be worn with white serge skirts.

The Importance of Ribbons.

Ribbons are coming in for a great deal of prominence this season. They are not used only for small accessories such as girdles and collars, but have become much more important and have been employed for parasols and hats. Very wide striped ribbons combining three or more harmonizing colors have been used very effectively

A Smart Spring Coat in Barrel Effect to make parasols and to cover the entire crown and top of the brim of light-weight straw hats for sports wear. Matching parasols, hats and handbags made of ribbon or the pretty figured silks, are seen over and over again.

Narrow grosgrain ribbon is employed in rows, one overlapping the other, to cover the crowns and brims of some hats. Sometimes two colors are used alternately. The brim of a white panama hat was covered in this way with old gold and dark green ribbon, only the crown remaining in view to tell that the hat was a panama. An idea for remodeling your last year's panama, you will, no doubt, think! Another panama was faced with black velvet under the brim and the crown draped with black and white silk with a tassel placed at one side.

KENTUCKY FISCAL COURT
CONVENTION MARCH 28

No event, other than a national war, of greater moment to the people of Central Kentucky right now than the development of good roads in the Blue Grass region, with the consequent allurement of the loose dollars of the tourist traffic that will be turned loose here this summer.

Road Commissioner Rodney Wiley has called into existence the Kentucky Fiscal Court Association, and has designated the time and place of the convention to be at Lexington, on Wednesday, March 28. He has extended a personal and very cordial invitation not only to the county judges and magistrates, but all the landowners along the public highways. Mr. Wiley says this will be the most important highway meeting of the present year. He will himself undertake to give to Kentucky its first accurate statistics as to exact present conditions of roadways in Kentucky, and what we may expect by the coming of summer. Mr. Peter Lee Atherton will deliver an address on the dollars and cents value of good roads, and Mr. Denny B. Goode, secretary-manager of the Lexington Board of Commerce, will speak on "Adornment of the Public Highways."

Bourbon county, having one of the best and most complete systems of county roads in the State, will not be directly influenced or interested in the proposed meeting, but it is likely that there will be a large attendance from the county at the sessions. Some of the facetiously-inclined ones have suggested that Fayette county might hurry the improvement of the Lexington and Paris pike, near the Country Club, which has been torn up for some time, so that it could be used as a good argument for the good roads movement. It has been suggested that Mr. Wiley be taken out there for a personal inspection of the uncompleted piece of road.

QUESTIONS ANTI-PASS LAW.

A suit to test the constitutionality of the clause in the anti-pass act of 1916 granting railroads permission to give reduced rates to students of the Universities of Kentucky, State Normal Schools, public schools and parochial schools, has been filed in the Fayette Circuit Court at Lexington by J. L. Tarlton, of Fayette county. He asks a restraining order that the Kentucky Traction & Terminal Company not be permitted to sell cheaper fares to students of those schools than to those attending Hamilton College.

MATRIMONIAL.

SHIVELEY—GRIGGS.

Miss Emma Shiveley and Mr. Herman Griggs, both residents of Scott county, came to Paris, Wednesday afternoon, and applied to County Clerk Pearce Paton for a marriage license. Mr. Paton hesitated for some time and finally, on account of the youthful appearance of the couple, required them to make affidavit that they were of legal age. The license was then granted them, and they were married shortly after by County Judge C. A. McMillan.

SHANKER—COHEN.

Friends of the bride-elect in Paris have received news of the engagement of Miss Ida Shanker, formerly of Paris, to Mr. A. W. Cohen, of Middletown, Ohio, formerly of Cincinnati. The wedding will take place soon.

Miss Shanker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Shanker, former residents of Paris, now residing at Erlanger, where Mr. Shanker has a profitable business. She is a sister of Messrs. Sam, Louis and Sol Shanker, who are all pleasantly remembered here.

PARRISH—GHERRY.

A surprise wedding which occurred in Millersburg yesterday afternoon was that of Miss Maude Parrish, of Clintonville, to Mr. J. B. Gherry, of Fleming county, which was solemnized in the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Eilett, principal of the Millersburg Graded School. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gherry left for their new home near Flemingsburg.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Vinnie Parrish, of Clintonville, and has for several years been in charge of the Clintonville exchange of the Bourbon Home Telephone Company. She is a young woman of many graces of character, and has been prominent in the social life of the community in which she resided. Mr. Gherry is a prosperous and popular young farmer who is to be congratulated upon winning so charming and accomplished a bride.

When Mrs. Gherry was still Miss Maude Parrish she was regarded as one of the most valuable members of the Home Co.'s force, being a uniform favorite, obliging and accommodating and possessed of that most valuable asset, uniform courtesy. THE NEWS extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gherry.

ALMA GLUCK AT LEXINGTON.

A large number of music-lovers from Paris will go to Lexington next Tuesday night, March 27, to hear Alma Gluck, the noted vocalist, in song recital at the Woodland Park Auditorium. The coming of this charming young artistic singer has been widely heralded throughout the Blue Grass region, and her appearance will no doubt be greeted by one of the largest and most representative audiences ever assembled under the Auditorium roof.

The sale of seats is now on at Wurlitzer's, 351 West Main street, in Lexington. The prices are: First floor, $2.00 and $1.50; Balcony, first row, $1.50; remainder, $1.00 and 50 cents. (adv)

ORANGE A BOOZE CURE.

(Kansas City Star.)

"The war," says M. Capus, editor of the Paris Figaro, "is bringing out experiments and experience." Only a few days ago M. Painlevé, Minister of the Interior, in an address to the Anti-Alcohol League at the Sorbonne, asserted that with the advent in the army three weeks ago of the first consignment of oranges the fever of alcoholism seems to have abated among the soldiers.

"Orange juice when administered to a soldier craving for liquor," M. Painlevé says, "at once stops that eager appetite. It does more. Inveterate smokers have thrown aside their cigarettes and felt complete satisfaction after the administration of concentrated orange juice."

As the oranges are distributed without stint, the Minister avers they have been committed to the hospital for treatment of alcoholism and oversmoking only 2 per cent of the number treated before the oranges arrived.

IT WAS GREAT WASTE OF INK.

(Minneapolis Tribune.)

He entered the West Hotel, a fine, courtly Southern gentleman, very affable and genial. And this is what he wrote on the register:

"Hinton Grave Lee, resident in Augusta, Ga., prior to February 1, and in Georgia State since 1852, now resident at Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan."

Clerks A. D. Hein and A. M. Shartin looked it over and had a whispered consultation.

"Think of it," said Hein. "Why, the ink firm could afford to pay the traveling expenses and a good salary to Mr. Lee. If that habit ever spreads there wouldn't be ink enough in the United States to go around."

DEATHS.

THOMPSON.

—Dr. Ben F. Thompson, aged seventy-six, one of the oldest and best known practicing physicians in this section, died at his home in Mt. Sterling, Wednesday, after a long illness of organic heart trouble. He is survived by his wife, one brother, Mr. Joel Thompson, of Missouri, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Shirley, of Kansas. Dr. Thompson was a member of the Christian church and had served on the official board for the past twenty years. He was one of the most highly-respected and widely-known citizens of Montgomery county, and was well-known to the medical profession of Paris and the county.

HUKILL.

—The funeral of Mr. Wm. Hukill, Sr., aged eighty-six, who died suddenly Monday afternoon at his home on Broadway, in this city, was held at the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with services conducted by Rev. W. O. Sadler, of the Paris Methodist church. The burial followed in the Paris Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: Active—Harry O. James, E. B. January, E. B. Hedges, B. A. Frank and Ellis Hukill Honorary—John T. Hinton, L. J. Fretwell, J. H. Roseberry and John T. Hukill.

In the passing away of Mr. Hukill Paris loses a representative citizen, one whom everyone liked, whose quiet unassuming manner was a true index to the life he lived among us. If he had an enemy it was not one of his own making, as no man in Paris was better liked than he.

JOHNSON.

Mrs. Fannie Johnson, aged seventy-three, died at her home near North Middletown, this county, at six o'clock, Tuesday morning, following a protracted illness of general debility and pneumonia.

Mrs. Johnson was the widow of the late George Johnson, a well-known Confederate veteran, who died very suddenly at North Middletown some time ago. She is survived by two children, Thomas Johnson and Mrs. E. B. Allen, both of North Middletown.

Funeral services were held at her late home Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. John Christopherson, pastor of the North Middletown Christian church. The burial followed on the family lot in the North Middletown Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were J. C. Bryan, Lot Young, John Banta, Chas. H. Meng, Robert Gilkey and Wm. Bryan, Sr.

TEBBBS.

Miss Alice Tebbs, daughter of the late Mr. H. H. Tebbs, of Cynthiana, dropped dead at her home on Webster avenue, in Cynthiana, Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock.

Miss Tebbs had been in Paris for several days as a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Kiser Smith, and Mr. Smith. She had just returned to Cynthiana and was at her former home with her aunt, Mrs. J. Wesley Hawkins, when her death occurred. Miss Tebbs had been a patient sufferer from tuberculosis for some time, but was thought to be getting better. Heart failure was given as the immediate cause of her death.

Miss Tebbs was twenty-five years old. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. Kiser Smith, of Paris, and Miss Lenella Tebbs, of Texas, and one brother, Mr. Wesley Tebbs, also of Texas. Her mother died two weeks ago. The funeral and burial will take place from the family residence in Cynthiana to-day.

HARRIS.

—Miss Dorothy Harris, aged fifteen, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Harris, of this city, died Wednesday afternoon at the Massie Memorial Hospital, following an operation for appendicitis performed Monday night. Miss Harris had been dangerously ill since the operation was performed, but through it there persisted a hope that she would eventually rally and pull through, but all such hopes were shattered ruthlessly when the angel of Death claimed her pure young soul Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Harris was the only daughter of Mrs. Harris, whose husband met a tragic death in this city some years ago, and her death leaves the mother practically alone, her only other child, Mr. Harold Harris, being a hospital steward in the United States Navy. He was notified by wire of his sister's death, but could not obtain leave of absence, having just been transferred from the U. S. S. Perkins, stationed in Southern waters, to the U. S. Ship Panther, now in Boston harbor.

Miss Harris was one of the brightest students of the Paris High School, where she was a universal favorite with pupils and teachers. She was a member of the Christian church and the Sunday school. Her untimely death has spread a shadow over the community, as her short, but happy life was spent here; and every heart must surely be touched with deepest sympathy for the mother, from whose home the light of the household has fled, in this, her second and most crushing bereavement. For fifteen years, bright, sunny years, for the mother this young girl had not only been her joy and comfort, but her sweet, childish presence had brought a wealth of sunshine and happiness into the lives of her friends and playmates. None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement such as the death of this fair young girl must be, can justly weigh such a sorrow as death brings.

The funeral cortège will leave the family residence this (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock, for North Middletown, where services will be held at the grave in the North Middletown Cemetery, by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

MASONIC EASTER SERVICES TO BE HELD IN LEXINGTON

All Masonic commanderies of surrounding towns have been invited to attend a special Easter observance service to be given April 8 by the Webb Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, of the Masonic Order, in Lexington. Arrangements for the observance have been completed by the Easter Observance Committee, composed of Theodore L. Jones, Jess Rossell and Chester D. Adams. The service will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church, in Lexington, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dr. J. W. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will preach, the subject of his sermon being "The Pilgrim Warrior." Music will be furnished by Charles Louis Bennett's School of Music. Plans are under way to have several hundred Sir Knights march in a body to the services.

Dr. Porter will preach at his church next Sunday morning at a special service for the Masons, who will assemble at their temple on North Broadway and march in a body to the church. Several hundred, it is thought, will be in the parade.

An attempt will be made to get Governor Stanley and other prominent men as speakers. Committees are now at work arousing enthusiasm among the Masons and this is the first of a series of sermons, which Dr. Porter, himself a Mason, will give to the members of the order.

The public is invited to attend both next Sunday's special service and the Easter service.

NEWSPAPERS IN SCHOOLS.

(Toledo Chronicle.)

Newspapers are beginning to be used in rural schools as substitutes for textbooks, more especially furnishing current reading in place of literary books and magazines. This step will be a benefit in two ways. First, it will be a means of instructing the pupils in current events, and, secondly, it will make the newspapers better. No paper will be tolerated unless it is clean and wholesome, and the publisher who prints a paper that meets the demand will be the one to enjoy the patronage.

MEMENTO OF THE PAST.

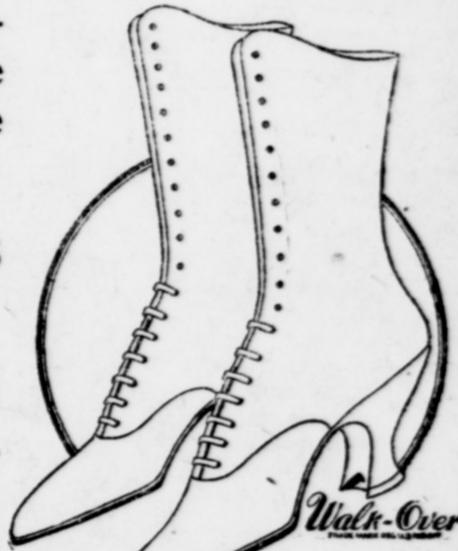

Mr. William Remington, editor of the Paris Democrat, has in his possession a cover for a sofa pillow, on which is embroidered the names of one hundred and forty-three members and attendants at the Paris Christian church. It was made twenty-one years to the Great Beyond. They are names of people familiar to the residents of Paris. Each name was written on thread. In the center was the wording "John S. Sweeney, Pastor Paris Christian Church, 1871—1896."

The list of names comprises many who were, at that time prominent factors in the business and social life of Paris. Of the number whose names appear on the cover forty-eight—one third of the total, have passed over to the Great Beyond. They are names of people familiar to the residents of Paris. The relic is an interesting one, and is highly prized by Mr. Remington.
